

Announcement of Padang Besar Provincial Police Station
It is a matter of conscience not to receive all kinds of gifts and gifts from duty.
(No Gift Policy)

The Padang Besar Police Station is committed to developing operations in a transparent manner. The government is committed to public interest rather than private interests. In accordance with the country's reform plan on anti-corruption and misconduct (revised version), which aims to operate with transparency, no benefits. All government officials do not accept gifts and gifts of all kinds from duty (No Gift Policy).

Therefore, I would like to announce the intention of the director of Betong Police Station and all police officers. You will not receive any gifts and gifts from your duty (No Gift Policy) together to create a culture, organization and honest values in your work. You will not accept the patronage system. Avoid actions that may affect discretion or decision-making, which lead to discrimination, prevention of unfair duties and no overlapping benefits. At the same time, the government will build confidence in the people to perform their duties in good governance

Therefore, it was announced and strictly observed.

Announced on March 2, 2013.

Police Colonel

(Komthep Paoin)

Director of the Padang Besar Police Station.
